THE DAY IN CONGRESS

The Silver Repeal Bill in the Senate.

BARROOM SCENE IN THE LOWER HOUSE

The Lie Bandied Back and Forth Between Members Until the Regular Order Was Demanded—The Election Repeal Bill.

SENATE

WASHINGTON Sept 28—The reading of yesterday's journal was not half completed before Mr Hoar (rep Mass) called attention to the fact that there was no quorum present The roll was then called forty three senators answering (one more than a quorum), and the reading of the journal was begun again and concluded

The resolution offered yesterday by Mr Teller (rep Col) calling for information as to the anticipation of interest on the government bonds since July, 1890 was laid before the senate and gave rise to a discussion which lasted three-quarters of an hour Opposition to it was made by Mr Voorhees (dem Ind) on the ground that it would require a financial history of the country for the last thirteen years but after explanation by Mr Teller of the scope and object of the resolution Mr Voorhees objection was withdrawn

After still further discussion, the resolution was agreed to

The repeal bill was then (at 12 05) taken up and Mr Hoar addressed the senate not on the bill itself but on a matter relating (he said) to a deceased colleague of his (Mr Hooper) and affecting the honor of the whole country

Mr Hoar referred to a supposed bribe from Mr Ernest Seyd a distinguished French writer on finances which he declared to be a slander not only on Mr Hooper but on the American congress and on the American people He had the clerk read an article from the Peoria (Ill) Journal giving what purported to be a history of the transaction part of which an alleged clipping from the Congressional Globe he said was a forgery

Mr Cullom (rep Ill) came to the defense of the editor of the Peoria Journal—Mr Barnes—whom he declares to be highly honorable man who would not be knowingly guilty of printing a forgery of that kind He assumed that the article had been prepared by somebody else and that Mr Barnes had not thought of comparing the extract from the Congressional Globe with the volume itself

The discussion of the Seyd bribery story was participated in by senators on both sides of the chamber The drift of it was to prove the falsehood and absurdity of the story and that the forgery exposed by Mr Hoar had been in circulation (without denial) for thirteen years

This incident having been disposed of the consideration of the repeal bill was resumed and Mr Peffer addressed the senate He said that he had addressed the senate twice on the pending bill and amendments and that he wished now to continue the discussion on some of the points brought out in these two addresses

The allegations made in the press and in the senate that the president had interfered with legislation he (Mr Peffer) could understand and make allowances for Such interference (if there was any) only showed the president's earnestness as a citizen as well as an officer—his earnestness and his zeal to accomplish what he regarded as not only desirable legislation but unnecessary legislation and there was nothing improper in that When he had spoken about twenty minutes the absence of a quorum was called to the attention of the presiding officer by Mr Stewart

A momentary attendance of the senators was secured by roll call and Mr Peffer resumed his speech first modestly disclaiming any desire of recalling the senators to the chamber They were properly absent from it getting their luncheon or attending to other matters He sent to the clerk's desk and had read the president's letter published in this morning's papers to Gov Northern, of Georgia He remarked of it while the president represented himself as a friend of bimetallism he did not say sin what he meant If he had suggested some kind of bimetallism that would have been a proper subject of discussion

While insisting that he favored the use of both gold and silver the president made it perfectly plain that he would measure silver by the gold standard whereas the history of the country had been just the reverse—measuring gold by the silver standard Whenever the administration was ready to accept an amendment to bring about the restoration of the old law (the free coinage of gold and silver) the repeal bill could be passed in twenty five minutes. He did not believe that any senator would care to say another word on the subject if only the chairman of the finance committee would indicate his readiness to accept that compromise—the restoration of the law of 1837 Then senators could meet and shake hands across the bloody chasm, pass the bill and take a rest for a week or two. But so far as he was concerned that was the only compromise that he either proposed to offer or accept

Mr Hoar rose and put a question to him which was not audible across the aisle Thereupon Mr Harris inquired sarcastically whether the interview that was taking place was private If not senators on his side of the chamber would like to know what it was all about

Mr Hoar turned the tables on Mr Harris by charging him with a violation of the senate in not rising when he addressed the chair Thereupon Mr Harris rose and renewed more impetuously than he had done before his complaint that the senators from Kansas and Massachusetts were having an interview inaudible to the rest of the senators and said the senator from Massachusetts had not addressed the chair Things were set right all around and Mr Peffer went on with his speech

In the division of labor in his argument into various subjects Mr Peffer reached at 5 10 what he called the subject of "Parities" Then he said that while he was willing to go on with his speech this evening and continue until to-morrow morning at sunrise he did not want to tax the endurance of the senate by asking senators to remain longer than they wished to Still he was quite ready to go ahead now He only wished to submit the question to the senate

Knowing as I do, Mr Harris said that there is a large accumulation of executive business on hand I suggest to the senator from Indiana to let us go into executive session at this time

Mr Voorhees assented to the proposition and the senate went into executive session and at 5 42 p m adjourned until to-morrow at 11 o clock

HOUSE

There were less than 100 members present at noon to-day in the house and the majority of those in attendance sat on the republican side of the main aisle

Before the approval of the journal Mr Morse (rep Mass) suggested that there was no quorum present but stated that he would withdraw his suggestion if he were permitted a minute or two to address the house Consent was given and Mr Morse merely said that he regretted that there was a member in the house who would object to his request to have certain newspaper clippings published in the Record That member was the gentleman from Illinois (Mr Fithian) He had never been an obstructionist and would not be one now

Mr Fithian said that he had objected to having the matter published because he had been informed that it contained a personal attack on the commissioner of pensions. On the day that he had objected the gentleman had come to him and had informed him that he (Mr Morse) was a member of the committee on public buildings, and had asked him whether he was asking for any public buildings in his district [Laughter] He had answered in the negative Then the gentleman had inquired whether he was interested in the printing bill He had replied that he was paying attention to it.

Mr Morse—The gentleman's statement is entirely false

Mr Fithian—If the gentleman denies the statement I will produce a member of this house who will corroborate me My colleague, Mr Goldzier heard the conversation.

Mr Morse replied that the gentleman's statement had a color of truth [Laughter] But the construction he put on the conversation was absolute and unqualified falsehood.

Mr Fithian—Did you ask me whether I wanted any public buildings in my district?

Mr Morse—No that is not true and you know it is not true

Mr Fithian—If the gentleman means to intimate that I am telling a falsehood he is willfully lying himself

Mr Hopkins (rep Ill) thought that this kind of talk should stop and he demanded the regular order

Mr Pigan called up the resolution calling on the war department for information as to the instructions given to United States troops on the Cherokee strip

In the morning hour Mr McRae called up and the house passed a bill relating to the disqualification of registrars and receivers of land offices [It disqualifies a registrar or receiver from determining any case in which he is interested directly or indirectly He shall report his disqualification to the commissioner of the general land office who shall designate some other registrar to act for him]

The federal election bill was then taken up and the house was addressed by Mr Black (dem Ill) who expressed his gratification that there seemed to be a disposition on both sides of the house to argue this question calmly and quietly He held that if there ever was a time when these laws were necessary that time had gone by What was needed was the protection of the ballot box against political ignorance The laws had been designed to intensify the race issue They appealed to force and not to reason They were an obstruction to progress and should be repealed He then went on to refer to the large expenditures required to put the laws into execution This was a question which in the present condition of the country it was worth the while of members to consider He referred to the employment of 2 000 bums to coerce the voters of Chicago and the response of an outraged but freedom loving people with a democratic majority of 20 000 The democratic party believed that these laws should be repealed and the democratic members would vote for repeal on the earliest possible occasion

Mr Johnson (rep Ind) took the floor in opposition to the bill He hesitated not in the outset to stigmatize the measure as the climax of all that was atrocious and vicious in legislation It repealed all that was near and dear to the American heart It was the unfortunate child of a wretched conspiracy that was conceived in total ignorance of the fundamental principles upon which this government was constructed This government was neither a despotism a monarchy nor an aristocracy It was a mighty republic—a republic in which the people were sovereign a republic in which the people governed themselves under the provisions of a written constitution which was the product of their own hands The pending measure was nothing more or less than a cold blooded proposition to repeal the laws which made the violation of election methods a crime It was a cowardly hoisting of the white flag It was a shameful capitulation to the demands of men who wished to invade the rights of the people It said that so far as the national government was concerned there should be no one to prevent their frauds It was a confession that this nation had no disposition or power to guarantee its citizens in the exercise of their highest rights

Mr Johnson then went on in a humorous manner to ridicule the democratic claim that these laws were unconstitutional and referred to that party as a party which God Almighty in His inscrutable providence had permitted to live but had never permitted to work [Laughter]

Was this government he queried a myth or a reality? Had it the power to protect the citizen in the exercise of his rights? Was it optional with the citizen whether he should obey the laws or not? Those laws were worth all they had cost if they threw around the right of suffrage the slightest protection There may have been individual cases of oppression, but in their general effect the operation of these laws had oppressed nobody and had been in the interest of a free ballot and a fair count [Applause]

He then made a bitter attack on the democratic party from 1858 to the present time There were several attempts made to interrupt him but the flow of his language could not be stayed and every man who wished to question him had to go down smilingly before the torrent

Mr Johnson said that the pending measure was the climax of democratic crime it was the capstone to the lofty tower of democratic infamy [Applause]

A great wrong was being here inflicted A blow was being aimed at the purity of the ballot The people assert themselves and would take hold with irresistible force of the democratic party and pull it from power [Applause] He then closed his speech with a somewhat sneering remark as to the gentleman who was to succeed him on the floor—Mr Breckenridge of Kentucky Mr Breckinridge began his remarks by a reference to the scant courtesy accorded him by the gentleman who had just finished speaking He had profound sympathy for the heart that could dictate such a speech as the gentleman had made this afternoon and would dismiss the gentleman and his speech [Applause]

Mr Johnson (interrupting)—There are other things the gentleman might like to dismiss but the people will not dismiss them

Mr Breckinridge—I did not accurately hear the remark but it shows a want of courtesy in the gentleman to interrupt me without permission There is no interruption I am not willing to accord to a gentleman who understands the proprieties and decencies of parliamentary language [Applause]

But that continued Mr Breckinridge was all that he desired to say on this point He desired to discuss the pending question without passion or temper He desired to approach it with the solemnity which ought to be observed by a majority which was charged with legislating on a great question He then proceeded to make a constitutional argument against the federal election laws and closed by saying, it had been said by the opponents of the pending bill that it was a conspiracy It was a conspiracy but it was a conspiracy of a majority of the people against the election laws

At the conclusion of Mr Breckinridge's remarks the house at 5 o clock adjourned

WANTED TO SEE PAPA

A Crank Finds His Way Into the White House

TO SECURE THE PRESIDENT'S CHAIR

By Fair Means or Foul—He is Neatly Outwitted and Captured by a Policeman After a Short but Desperate Struggle.

WASHINGTON, Sept 29—Yesterday morning shortly before 11 o'clock a white man about 28 years of age in some unexplained way found his way into the lower legions of the White House and meeting the colored cook, said "I want to see father"

"Who is your father?" the cook asked him

'Mr Cleveland, of course," was his response

Just then Policeman Heller appeared upon the scene and saw at a glance that the man was not altogether right and so he dealt with him accordingly

"Your father is out in the garden," he told the mysterious visitor

"Come with me and we'll find him" Arm in arm they started towards the door, the intruder thinking he was going to meet the president, but the officer knew that he would land him at the watch box On the way to the box the officer asked the man

"What did you want in the White House?"

"I wanted that chair,' was his response

"What chair?"

"The president's chair"

"Don't you think the president fills it satisfactorily"

"No, I don't," was his reply And I intend to get it by fair means or foul Give us each a pistol and I'll show you who will get it quick'

When they got to the watch box they found Policeman Havin on duty Both the officers knew what was going on The prisoner grabbed the policeman's black-jack from his pocket, evidently thinking he was going to get a pistol He tried to use the club on the officer but both officers grabbed him, and the struggle lasted but a few minutes before the man was overpowered The crank was conveyed to the police station where he gave the name of Joseph Washington and said he came from Pennsylvania A charge of being a suspicious character was filed against him

THE IRON HALL

Case Comes Up for Trial The Receiver's Report

INDIANAPOLIS Ind Sept 29—The Iron Hall case came up for hearing in the superior court yesterday morning, and after some argument Judge Winters entered an order requiring attorneys to say who they represented and the two wings of the order to show by what authority their supreme sittings were elected Receiver Failey filed his first report with the court a voluminous document He shows this recapitulation

'Your receiver charges himself with the amount of cash received from the date of his appointment the sum of $762,168.93, and your receiver claims and is entitled to credits amounting to $47 003 16, leaving a net cash balance of $715,165 64 Said cash balance is now on deposit in Fletcher's bank and the Merchants' national bank, Indianapolis The assets not converted into cash are as follows

Notes bonds and securities from M
C Davis appraised value	$ 5 072 50
From branches face value	28 321 18
Total	$34 023 68

There is still remaining due and unpaid of the reserve fund held by the various branches an amount of $1 236,643 18.

Claims against the receiver of the Mutual Banking Surety Trust & Safety Deposit Co of Philadelphia $718 333.70

Claims against the New Jersey Trust & Safe Deposit Co of Camden N J for money deposited with said bank $2 287 74

Of the expenses with which the receiver has credited himself $36,343 73 was for attorneys' fees and $10,000 for his own services

In the course of his report the receiver says Your receiver further reports that in regard to the item of notes, bonds and other securities in his possession, that their value is uncertain, as some of the notes are unsecured, and some are part due and payment of same has been refused

Also reports held by the reserve of various branches, that he has demanded of each branch an accounting and that in more than one case the branches have been prevented from so accounting on account of litigation In other cases the reserve funds have been appropriated by branch officers In a number of cases the reserve funds were deposited in the Mutual bank of Philadelphia at the time of its assignment

The case was set for final hearing on November 6

CAPTURED AGAIN.

Joseph Hardin, the Centralia Train Robber, Caught at Last

CINCINNATI Sept 29—Joseph S Hardin one of the Centralia (Ill) train robbers, the police claim, was captured in this city at 12 30 this morning He had been traced from St. Louis to Effingham, Ill where his people live, by Detectives Smith and Allender, who were working on the robbery, thence to Staunton, Ind., thence to 932 Carlisle avenue this city

Detective White followed him here at 6 o'clock last night, and, aided by Detectives Witte and Bulwer, surrounded the house Witte stood by the door and gave a signal to his comrades at midnight Hardin was met coming down stairs Witte covered him with a 42 caliber revolver and the man threw up his hands

"I'm done for," he exclaimed "Why didn't you bring a cannon?"

He will be taken to Centralia to-day He gave the name of Kay at the Carlisle avenue station.

DELUDED HAWAIANS

Waiting for the United States Government to Assist in Restoring the Queen

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept 29 — The steamer Mariposa arrived here yesterday morning from Sydney, bringing the following Honolulu advices

The United States cruiser Philadelphia had arrived, and Admiral Skerrett had transferred his flag to her from the Boston The latter expected to sail from San Francisco about the 27th Her bottom is perfectly sound During the latter's stay at Honolulu the warmest feelings of friendship were entertained between the Boston's officers and crew and the citizens, despite the royalist's official organ to the contrary

The royalists are greatly elated at the Washington news which is construed to mean that an election in Hawaii will be held to determine the form of government desired by the people, and that the Americans are confident that the native vote would restore the queen The government party deride the news as inspired for party motives It is held that the United States can take no action in elective matters without treaty stipulations It is still hoped that President Cleveland will recommend annexation rather than a protectorate

The royalists report that a number of American war ships are on their way to enforce quiet during the elections The royalist paper, Holomau, has been sold by the sheriff and replaced by an evening paper of the same political complexion

AN AWFUL PANIC

NEGRO LYNCHINGS.

The Barbarous Treatment of the Black Man

DISCUSSED BY AFRICAN METHODISTS

An Evil for Which a Remedy Must be Found in Elevating the Negro and Arousing Public Sentiment in His Favor.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Sept. 29—The Missouri African Methodist Episcopal conference which is in session here, composed of negro ministers from Indiana, Illinois and Missouri, was given up to the discussion of negro lynchings. The subject was started in the address of Bishop Alexander Walter, who, among other things said

"The lynching of negroes for trifling offenses and in many cases of innocent negroes is increasing to an alarming extent Something has got to be done The time has come when every minister, white and black should lift up his voice against these outrages and barbarities The blood of these innocent creatures calls aloud for vengeance, it is your place, by earnest and courageous agitation, to help answer their calls Let us rouse public sentiment in our favor by telling of these heinous crimes until the good people of this country are moved to speak out in our defense Thirteen negroes the vast majority of whom were innocent, were murdered last week It is a burning shame upon our civilization We cannot longer be silent, but must cry aloud, and cry until these outrages are banished from our land"

Rev H W Smith, of Corydon Ky, principal of the public schools at that place, made a speech of warm indignation, seconding the thought of the bishop

Dr J P Thompson, of St Louis, Mo, spoke very excitedly and his remarks were received partly with applause and half laughingly on account of their emphasis He knew he was regarded as something of an anarchist, he said, but he felt that there was too much praying The righting of the wrongs to the negro could come through the shedding of blood as the negro had been freed only by bloodshed The negro who was not willing to shed his blood for his wife and children was not fit to live

Dr Thompson's remarks were evidently taken with a reserve, though the indignation in them was approved

Bishop Walters rose to explain that he did not favor bloodshed and burning The negroes, he said, should, by living as good citizens and pointing out the injustice done to them arouse the public sentiment in their favor

JOSEPH CHAMBERLAIN

The British Liberal Unionist Leader En Route to the United States

QUEENSTOWN Sept 29—Upon the arrival at this port from Liverpool yesterday of the White Star line steamer Majestic a representative of the United Press boarded her and handed to Mr Joseph Chamberlain, the liberal unionist leader, a copy of the speech delivered by Mr Gladstone at Edinburgh Wednesday night Mr Chamberlain, who intends to stay for some weeks in the United States, could of course, give no opinion as to the speech, as he had had no time to read it but he said that he would keep the copy and peruse it during the voyage to New York He added that perhaps he would reply to Mr Gladstone when he returned to England He also said that the house of lords had upheld the views of a majority of the British people in throwing out the home rule bill It was desirable that parliament should pass a measure to reinstate the people who had been evicted from their land holdings in Ireland, but such a measure ought to receive the approval of Mr Balfour, the conservative leader in the house of commons before it was submitted to the house

THE late Lord Colthorpe left $5,000 to his cook and only $1,060 to his private chaplain This, presumably, was in proportion to the consolation he had received from them respectively

There Is No Need

Of reminding you of the depression in trade. You are well aware of that. But in this connection we wish to remind you of this fact, that in times like these CASH is an important factor. Orders placed early by merchants for fall merchandise were almost universally countermanded. This threw enormous stocks on the manufacturers' hands, of which they had to dispose of at a great sacrifice for ready CASH. We had the CASH and bought later, and as a result we own our Fall and Winter stock fully 35 to 40 per cent. cheaper than if we had been forced to purchase on time. No further argument is needed to convince you that, buying cheap we can also sell you cheap.

Our Fall and Winter Stock

is now in, and we cordially invite your inspection of it, and feel certain that we can convince you of the truth of the above.

Our $16.50

Black, all wool, flat bound, Clay Worsted Suit, in frock, double and single breasted sack, on which we challenge the world, now goes, owing to a heavy cash purchase, at $15.00 PER SUIT.

HAMSHER & CALHOUN, Prop'rs
DECATUR, ILLINOIS.

FRIDAY EVE., SEPT. 29, 1893.

CONGRESSMAN JOHN R. FELLOWS expects to see the Democrats carry New York by 100,000 majority when the Federal election laws are repealed. There would be nothing remarkable about such a majority. It would be in keeping with Tammany tactics, and after the plan of Southern ballot box stuffers, who decide on the majority before the election is held, wait for the honest returns to come in and then make up the deficit with tissue ballots and false returns. The Federal election laws were passed to punish such election thieves, and the Democrats resent such interference as much as burglars resent the manufacture of burglar-proof safes.

AN eastern Democratic organ tells manufacturers they are a set of fools for putting down wages or shutting up their factories while the McKinley act is in full force. Oh, indeed. On the same line of reasoning it would be absurd for any community to take precautions when it was known that horse-thieves were in the country until some horses were stolen. The manufacturer was forced to either shut down or limit his output because the return of the Democrats to power seriously crippled the demand for manufactures. Every merchant bought short and it was useless to try to force goods upon him, and in anticipation of a Democratic tariff when the factory started up, it does so by a cut in wages, and those that were running on short time or short help followed the cut in wages.

THE idleness which has been forced upon our workingmen within the last 10 months, has produced a better sentiment in favor of restricting immigration, and some legislation, in advance of any we have yet had on that question, may be the result. Congressman Curtis, of Kansas, has introduced a bill which provides that it shall be unlawful for the commanding officer of any vessel to receive any alien passenger bound for the United States if an examination discloses the fact that such person is unable to read or write; that his passage has been paid by any other person or corporation; who does not possess, if a single man, the sum of $300, if a single woman $100, if head of family $500, or who is not mentally or physically sound, who has ever been in prison for any infamous crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude; who has been in an almshouse or supported by charity within two years; who is a polygamist, anarchist or under contract, express or implied, to perform labor in the United States.

Working Old Saws.

The Decatur Review has again tried to make the Democratic campaign statement do service, that the Republicans, after President Cleveland's administration had left a surplus of about $100,000,000 in the treasury, squandered it and left an empty treasury for Cleveland when he returned to power.

Of course a Democratic organ is expected to do something to keep up appearances. It wont do to say, in the face of present conditions, much about the "robber tariff" and the "robber barons." It wont do to say that the return of the Democrats to power has helped the workingmen and the farmers to better their condition. It wont do to say it, because nobody outside of a lunatic asylum would believe it. But it is thought that the looted treasury racket can still be worked on a few sap-heads.

But what about the depleted treasury? In 1884 the Democrats made a campaign on the statement that the Republicans had a surplus in the treasury amounting to four hundred millions of dollars; that this surplus represented the robbery of the people through the workings of a robber tariff; that it was robbery to collect money from the people and allow it to remain idle in the treasury when it ought to be in the "pockets of the people." If that campaign statement was true, and we should apply the same rule the Review now tries to apply, Mr. Cleveland's administration managed to get away with three hundred millions of that surplus during his four years, if only one hundred millions were left when he went out of office.

But the facts are that Mr. Cleveland's administration was run from start to finish on laws formerly enacted by the Republicans, tariff, revenues and all, save only the appropriations made by the congress elected in 1884 and 1886. The senate during Cleveland's first term of office was Republican, and stood as a barrier to destructive and dangerous Democratic legislation. It was a Republican senate that killed the Mills bill and other vicious legislation, and saved the country from the calamities that have come upon it now that the Democrats have full power.

The laws in force at that time, by which revenues were secured to meet the expenses of the government, kept a surplus of about $100,000,000 in the treasury; but Democratic clamor made the people believe a surplus was a dangerous thing, and when the tariff was revised in 1890, under the leadership of McKinley, it was so arranged as to barely secure revenue enough to meet the expenses of government. Over $70,000,000 of revenue a year was wiped out by making sugar free and there were many other reductions, some in customs and others in internal revenues. As soon as these reductions occurred, the demagogue campaigners began the cry that the treasury had been robbed of its surplus left by Cleveland by the Republicans.

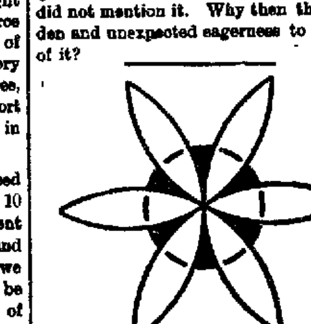

The first cry was the billion dollar congress cry in 1890, that the Reed congress had appropriated a billion dollars to defray the expenditures of the government. It is true that congress appropriated over 800 million, or over 400 million a year. The Democrats in 1890 promised, if elected, to economize and make the appropriations less, and the people, listening to these mountebanks, in 1890 returned a Democratic House with a ponderous majority; but instead of keeping their promises to the people, they appropriated over a billion dollars to meet the expenses of the government, or, over 500 million a year, and in 1892 again went into the campaign crying that the Republicans had emptied the treasury, while some of the more thoughtful said, "this has become a billion dollar country." These are facts that are matters of record; but true to its inclinations to deceive the people, the Democratic campaigner will continue to make these charges until they are driven from the falsehood, as they have been from the falsehood that a return of the Democrats to power would give the country a great business boom.

Why Do They Want It Repealed?

Chicago Tribune: Among the Federal election laws which the Democrats have introduced a bill to repeal is the following, which has been on the statute books for twenty-eight years:

All citizens of the United States who are otherwise qualified by law to vote at any election by the people in any state, territory, district, county, city, parish, township, school district, municipality, or other territorial subdivision shall be entitled and allowed to vote at all such elections without distinction of race, color, or previous condition of servitude, any constitution, law, custom, usage or regulation of any state or territory, or by or under its authority, to the contrary notwithstanding.

It must be admitted that this provision is not enforced in the cotton states. It is a very dead letter in Georgia, South Carolina, Mississippi, Alabama, etc. Why then should the southern Democrats be so anxious to repeal this section? Cannot they permit this general declaration of the right of American black citizens to vote to remain on the statute books? The constitution says that the blacks have a right to vote. There should be no objection to a law which says the same thing. Nothing was said prior to the election about the repeal of the provision quoted above. The Democratic platform did not mention it. Why then this sudden and unexpected eagerness to get rid of it?

SIX POINTS, out of many, where Dr. Pierce's Pellets are better than other pills:

1. They're the smallest, and easiest to take—little, sugar-coated granules that every child takes readily.
2. They're perfectly easy in their action—no griping, no disturbance.
3. Their effects last. There's no reaction afterwards. They regulate or cleanse the system according to size of dose.
4. They're the cheapest, for they're guaranteed to give satisfaction, or your money is returned. You pay only for the good you get.
5. Put up in glass—are always fresh.
6. They cure Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, Sick or Bilious Headaches, and all derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels.

It cures Catarrh in the Head—perfectly and permanently—Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy.

EDNA GOLD MINING STOCK.

DOWN TO GOLD.

Information from the Edna Gold Mining Company property in Boulder county, Colorado, is to the effect that development work is being pushed ahead rapidly. The price of the shares since August 1st has been raised to 15 cents, and may go to 25 cents before December. Rich tellurium rock, such as was found in the adjoining Smoky Hill mine, worth $4.00 a pound, thickly studded with gold, is now being found at the bottom of the Edna shaft, and it gets richer as the work proceeds. Specimens of the gold ore will be in Decatur in a few days. Parties desiring shares in blocks of 1000 or more can still get them at 10 cents each. Several parties can go in together and the certificates will be issued in fractions of 1000. Per order of W. G. Nagely, secretary; J. J. H. Young, Decatur agent—aug. 9-dtf

S. H. Clifford, New Cassell, Wis., was troubled with Neuralgia and Rheumatism, his stomach was disordered, his Liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of electric Bitters cured him.

Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Speaker, Catawber, O., had five large Fever sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold at King & Wood's drug store. em

WHEREAS, God in His providence has permitted the death angel to remove from our missionary society our beloved sister, Mrs. Nannie Nickey, therefore

Resolved, That, although we are unable to discover the reason for the removal of this devoted and efficient worker, yet mysterious as it may seem, we know that He who called her doeth all things well.

Resolved, That we humbly submit to the mandate of our Heavenly Father's will, trusting that He will inspire the surviving members with greater zeal to prosecute our missionary work.

Resolved, That we extend our sympathy to the bereaved ones, who feel most keenly their loss, and that we will pray God to abundantly bless and console them.

Suffering from Spermatorrhea and impotency the result of self-abuse in youth or excess in mature years and other causes, producing some of the following effects as emissions, blotches, nervousness, dizziness, confusion of ideas, aversion of society, defective memory, and sexual exhaustion, which unfit the victims for business or marriage, are permanently cured by remedies not injurious.

Blood and Skin Diseases.

Syphilis and complications, as sore throat, falling of the hair, pain in the bones, eruptions, etc., are perfectly eradicated without using mercury or other injurious drugs. Gonorrhea, gleet, strictures and all urinary and kidney troubles are speedily cured by treatment that has never failed. He undertakes no incurable cases, but cures thousands given up to die. Remember the date and come early, as his rooms are always crowded wherever he stops.

DR. FRUTH,

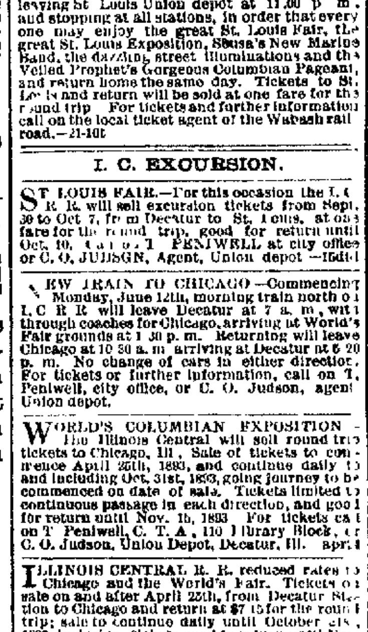

The well-known and successful Specialist, by request of many friends and patients has consented to visit

Decatur, Thursday, October 19,

And may be consulted free of charge at

ST. NICHOLAS HOTEL,

From 9 a. m. to 10 p. m.

The Celebrated Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat Specialist,

Who has performed more wonderful cures in diseases of a wasting, nervous and debilitating nature, the result of Self-Abuse, Overwork or Indulgence, than all other physicians combined, by his New Method treatment.

Catarrhal Disorders Quickly Cured. New Method.

Married men and women, or those contemplating entering upon that happy state aware of any weakness should give it prompt attention, as nothing will interrupt so quickly congenial married life as weakness and incompetency.

Organal Weakness,

nervous debility, premature decline of the manly powers is the penalty paid by the victim of improper self indulgence, unfitting them for the important duty of manhood, rendering life and the pursuit of happiness a failure, causing more unfaithfulness, misery, disease and discontent than all other vices combined, and to whom these words of warning have not come too late, let me impress upon you the importance of an immediate cure before the time comes when you have nothing to look forward to except a life of wrecked hopes, seared ambition, blighted career, bodily and mental suffering, intensified by shame and bitter remorse.

Young Men, who through ignorance or the thoughtless exuberance of youthful spirits are subjects of self abuse and as a result their mind and manhood are ruined, vim, vigor and physical structure sapped by emissions, vital drain in urine, which is a terrible waste upon the system, impoverishing the blood, robbing the body of the precious elements of precious manhood, shaking the nervous system from center to periphery, attacking the very citidel of life, should wake up and take treatment and resolve to be a man before disease, idiocy, insanity, falling fits, or total impotency result, which would forever prevent your own interference in your future welfare and make a cure unattainable.

Private Blood and Skin Diseases positively, completely and permanently cured

Nervous Debility and Sexual Disorders yield readily to his treatment

Lillian Lewis in "Lady Lil."

Lillian Lewis will be seen at the Grand October 3d, supported by Mr. Arthur Elliott and Lawrence Marston's Stock Company in "Lady Lil." This is the play in which Miss Lewis wears the famous thirty thousand dollar garter. In "Lady Lil" Miss Lewis appears as the premiere rider of the Prague Amphitheatre. The action of the play takes place at Prague, Bohemia, during the war of '66 between Austria and Prussia, the costumes are in the main military (German of course), and the scenic effects are original and very picturesque. Miss Lewis' costumes are very handsome, including four magnificent gowns—an Arena dress of fall tights and the uniform of a Prussian Hussar. During the evening the orchestra will perform that latest of musical novelty, the "Midway Plaisance Overture," that dreamy, that wakeful, that music of all music. Seats now on sale.

A CHARMING RECEPTION.

Given Yesterday Afternoon by Mrs. Outten and Mrs. Page.

A most enjoyable afternoon reception was given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. W. C. Outten and Mrs. H. P. Page, at their home at 570 Prairie avenue. The hours were from 2:30 to 4 and 4 to 6 o'clock. Mrs. Outten wore a handsome black silk and lace gown, and Mrs. Page was attired in a costume of changeable gray silk and carried pink roses. Mrs. W. M. Catto, who wore black silk, Mrs. E. Sturm, in a black and white costume, and Mrs. W. C. Miller, in a black and green gown, assisted in receiving. Mrs. E. P. Vail wore a gown of figured china silk, and presided at the punch bowl. Misses Gertie Tyler and Frankie Ferrell further assisted the hostesses. The favors were white and pink carnations and were in charge of Miss Lida Montgomery, who wore a white gown, Miss Pussy Hoskins in pink, Miss Ella Wilson in blue silk, and Miss Belle Catto in a white costume. Mrs. A. E. Stevens, Mrs. J. W. Armstrong and Mrs. J. E. Knight assisted in the dining room. The residence was beautifully and artistically decorated with palms and growing plants. Mrs Snyder had charge of the delightful refreshments. In the dining room the decorations were pink and white. Those invited were:

WEDDING BELLS.

Marriage of Attorney McDonald and Miss Thomas at the Home of the Bride

In the presence of fifty or more relatives and friends last evening at 7:30 o'clock, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Jennie Thomas, on East William street, beyond East Park Boulevards in Urban Place, Mr. E. S. McDonald and Miss Anna Thomas were united in marriage, Rev. H. H. Oneal, pastor of Grace M. E. church, officiating.

At the appointed hour the bride, escorted by her brother, Thomas Thomas, was met in the hall by Mr. McDonald, and in the parlor the ceremony was spoken and warm congratulations were extended. The bride was lovely in a rich cream colored silk with trimmings of lace. She wore natural flowers for ornaments and carried a bouquet of Marechal Neil roses tied with white ribbon. The groom was in conventional black, with a white rose on the lappel of his coat.

The house decorations were chiefly tropical plants which transformed the parlor and hall into a conservatory, with the fire from the glowing grate glinting through the foliage. A sumptious wedding repast was served under the direction of Mrs. Thomas, assisted by Miss Winegardner and other friends. It embraced all of the substantials and delicacies of the season, and everybody was presented with a slice of the bride's and groom's cake placed in a Japanese napkin.

The groom, as we all know, is one of the leading members of the Macon county bar, and was twice elected city attorney, serving the public with credit alike to himself and the city. Everybody knows "Mac" and everybody will take pleasure in wishing him joy. His chosen bride is a lady of intelligence, beauty and refinement, whose many friends unite with the Republican in extending congratulations.

Attorney and Mrs. McDonald took the Central train last night for Chicago to visit the World's Fair. On their return they will reside in the McDonald property in Urban Place.

Farewell to Rev. Parker.

The members of the Christian Endeavor Society of the First Methodist church gave a delightful farewell reception last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Stout, 607 West Main street, in honor of Rev. and Mrs. T. A. Parker, who will leave Tuesday for Beardstown. A musical program was rendered. The society sang "Blest Be the Tie that Binds," after which W. H. Hubbard offered prayer. The society presented Rev. Parker with a very handsome mantel clock. The presentation speech was made by D. A. Strader. A graceful response was made by Rev. Parker. The hymn "We Will Never Say Good-Bye in Heaven," was sung by a quartette composed of Milton Johnson jr., Elmer K. Towle, Bert Gher and G. E. Wood. After the program a delicious supper was served to a large number of guests.

Opens Monday, Oct. 2.

The night school at Brown's Decatur Business College will open Monday, Oct 2. Excellent advantages for learning bookkeeping, shorthand, typewriting, penmanship, arithmetic and spelling will be afforded. The rates of tuition are low. For particulars call at the college office or address E. P. Irving, principal. 28-d6

A GREAT MILLINERY OPENING.

Hundreds of Ladies Throng to Bradley Bros.' Fall Opening—Beautiful Things Which They Saw.

Bradley Bros.' great fall millinery opening began on Wednesday, continued yesterday and will continue for the remainder of the week. Already hundreds of ladies residing in Decatur and surrounding towns have visited the store and hundreds more will visit the establishment daily for the remainder of the week. The very good reason is that the attractions are something quite out of the ordinary, for it is in the trade a conceded fact that Bradley Bros. have the finest millinery department in the state outside of Chicago.

The styles are generally so attractive that it seems unnecessary to specify anything in particular. But the ladies will want detail and so we feel constrained to give descriptions of a few hats and bonnets. One is a black continental felt hat, faced with white felt, trimmed with a butterfly bow on the side and white aigrettes and jeweled ornaments. A child's hat is of pink felt, trimmed with pink ostrich tips and black velvet ribbons and jet buckles. Accompanying it is a muff of a harmonizing shade lined with pink velvet. A black jet bonnet has an elaborate bow of white lace and jet aigrettes, velvet ribbon ties. A black velvet Napoleon hat has a crown of spangled jet, black Prince of Wales tips and white lace trimming from the sides, rosettes of black satin ribbon. One black velvet hat is trimmed back from the face, is edged with brown mink fur, mink heads, rosettes of magenta velvet, magenta velvet roses, trimming over the hair back. A light green felt hat is faced with a darker shade of green velvet, green plumes and jeweled ornaments. A large black felt hat is faced with jet black ostrich plumes and black aigrettes, black satin roses, trimming in the back. An emerald green velvet hat is faced with white plush, edged with seal skin and ornamented with seal skin and emerald green Prince of Wales tips. A little brown felt braid bonnet has cut steel Mercury wings, brown shaded roses, edged with mink and with mink heads protruding from the front, velvet ribbon ties. A white felt plaque is edged with black ostrich feathers, trimmed up from the back, bows of black plush, black Prince of Wales tips. A sailor hat has a crown of white felt braid, rim of brown velvet, cut steel ornaments and fur trimmings. A little black jet bonnet has a coronet of jet and pearls, trimmed from the back with black aigrettes, black satin ribbon rosettes and black satin ties. A light blue felt is faced with golden brown velvet, trimmings of brown velvet, brown ostrich Prince of Wales tips.

But to adequately describe all would far transcend the limits of our space. There are many others likewise beautiful. The room, too, is most handsomely decorated with potted plants of all descriptions, with hanging baskets, and more than these with a most elaborate show of fine goods. The magnificent north and west light of this part of the store room shows everything to good effect. In proper places of the large room is a magnificent display of furs, fine silks and velvets and dress trimmings. The display of furs is elaborate and includes many beautiful things in seal skin jackets and wraps, beaver wraps and beaver capes, Astrakhan and Persian Lamb in the new shapes. On the south side of the main store room is an immense display of table linens and house furnishing goods. A variety of sateen and silk comforts is shown. By skillful arrangement and knowledge of decorative effect the display of everything is made most beautiful and the appearance of the entire store interior is most inviting.

But the millinery department has been an especial drawing card. The ladies have been captivated by it, and from the amount of goods which have been going out of the store for several days one would never dream that there ever had been a monetary stringency. There are, however, no end of pretty things there yet and no lady in Decatur should miss attending the great opening.

A Good Suggestion.

Eds. Republican: In April, 1861, when the president called for 75,000 men, before the call reached Decatur a company was organized by electing John P. Post captain. The date of enlistment is given as April 16th. On the 17th of April another company was enlisted and elected I. C. Pugh captain. Both companies were accepted by Gov. Yates, and the Eighth Regiment Illinois Infantry, with R. J. Oglesby as colonel, was sworn into the United States service, with Pugh's company as company A, and Post's as company B. At the end of three month's service the regiment re-enlisted for three years, and in the winter of 1863-64 re-enlisted as veterans, not being mustered out of the service until May 4, 1866, having been in the service over 5 years.

A few of the boys of '61, that served through the five years are left in Macon county. The regiment will hold a reunion in Decatur Oct. 11th, and 12th. Last year they met in Pekin—two companies F. and I., were from that place. The citizens of Pekin gave the boys a rousing reception, closing with a banquet. Can't Decatur do as well this year? I believe the citizens of this city are as patriotic, and hold the boys of '61 in as grateful remembrance as those of any other place in the United States.

A Citizen.

When the Mails Close.

Postmaster Hubbard thinks the public is perhaps not sufficiently informed on the time when the mails close. He therefore requests the publication of the following schedule:

10:15 a. m.—P., D. & E. south, Vandalia north, I., D. & S. east, and Wabash east and north.
2:15 p. m.—P., D. & E. north and Vandalia east, Champaign and Decatur east, Decatur and Effingham southeast.
8 p. m.—Wabash west and south.
8 p. m.—I. C. north and Wabash east.

THE BAPTIST MINISTERS.

Close of the Association Meeting and Go Home.

The closing incidents of the Springfield Baptist Association were the addresses at the Young People's Union meeting heard at the church last night.

During the afternoon after Mr. Gastman's sensible talk on the use of the Bible in the Sunday schools, a paper written by Miss Lou Shumway of Taylorville was read by Rev. S. H. Bowyer. The points were in reference to primary work in the schools. "The Things We Lack in Our Schools" was discussed by Rev. A. L. Converse of Springfield and Rev. Jordon of Assumption gave a talk.

The resolution presented by C. E. Torrey, J. J. Midkiff and A. H. Hanley favored taxation of church property; opposition to all government aid for sectarian schools, and uncompromising hostility to the saloon business. They were adopted.

At the evening service, which was in charge of the Association Young People's Union, George Zimmerman, of Taylorville, presided and I. N. Martin led an opening praise service. An orchestra consisting of Miss Hattie Jenison, cornetist, Brugh Werner and Miss Mollie Drobisch, violinists, and Miss Neta Clark, organist, was an attractive feature of the music. A fine duet was given by Mesdames R. C. and T. C. Roseberry, of Springfield.

A committee on nominations was selected as follows: Lon Tuttle, Decatur; Fred Steele, Pana; Mrs. Kitzmiller, Taylorville; Mrs. W. S. Barber, Springfield, and Rev. B. F. Vorhies, Jacksonville. Reports from societies at Decatur, Jacksonville, Taylorville, Springfield, Pana and Moweaqua, were presented, showing steady growth and activity among members.

These officers of the union were elected: President, George Zimmerman, Taylorville; vice-president, Miss Lottie Fox, Jacksonville; secretary and treasurer, T. C. McIntire, Decatur, who were unanimously elected. The following board of managers were also elected: R. H. Patton, Springfield; Rev. E. F. Vorhies, Jacksonville, and Rev. C. E. Torrey, Decatur.

Hon. R. H. Patton, of Springfield, gave a practical address on "The Responsibilities which Face the Young People of this Generation," and Rev. C. E. Torrey, of Decatur, gave a few words on christian culture.

RELICS OF LINCOLN.

Odd Features of a New Collection in the Old Homestead.

Springfield Journal.

Since the dismissal of the original custodian of the Lincoln homestead to make room for a Democrat, recently selected by Governor Altgeld, and the consequent removal of the Lincoln memorial collection from the home, the new custodian has been engaged in securing articles of historic value and he has accumulated several relics that are of real interest. The most valuable of these, probably, is a rail that was split by Lincoln. Visitors who have been accustomed to the usual grouping of Lincoln's portrait with those of Washington and Grant and who have a well developed sense of propriety will be shocked to observe the way in which the new custodian has improved upon the customary grouping by substituting a portrait of Grover Cleveland for that of Gen. Grant in the trio which is associated on the east wall of Lincoln's back parlor. They will see stranger things than this queer trio, if they linger in front of the mantel where Abe Lincoln formerly spent the long winter evening in the cheerful glow of the family fireplace. In this spot which should be tender to the most sacred recollections of the family and home life of the murdered Lincoln may be seen a portrait of the gallant and noble General Sherman polluted with the presence at the opposite end of the mantel of a portrait of Wilkes Booth, the vile assassin whose foul deed can never be effaced from the history of civilization. Old soldiers and friends of the lamented victim who do not want to see such a desecration of the family fireplace of Abraham Lincoln will do well to remain away from the Lincoln residence. Another picture in the same room, which does not appear to have any special fitness there, is an immense campaign banner with a portrait of Gen. John M. Palmer on it. Tempora mutantur.

He will Puzzle You.

The chief illusions this season in Herrmann's repertoire are in his latest sensation, which he has named "After the Ball." The idea of it is taken from the Jewel Scene in Faust. A large mirror is placed upon the stage so that the audience can see underneath, on both sides and over it, entirely isolated from all other objects. Marguerite is discovered disrobing herself, without any curtains, cabinet or covering of any kind whatsoever. At a wave of Herrmann's magic wand she disappears as though the earth had swallowed her up. Another illusion is entitled "The Mysterious Swing of Here! There! Nowhere!" The lady is seated in a swing ten feet above ... stage, which is also isolated from all su... objects, and at the firing of a pi... ot she dissolves into the air while ... swing falls in pieces on the stage. Herrmann will be at the Grand to-morrow (Saturday) night.

Announcement.

Our regular fall line of imported and domestic cloths for our tailoring department is now on our counters, and we can safely say that it is larger, more varied and assorted than any in the city. GUARDS ON DUTY.

Chicago Board of Trade Men Take No More Chances.

[SPECIAL TO THE REPUBLICAN]

CHICAGO, Sept. 29.—A squad of uniformed police patrolled the lobbies and corridors of the Board of Trade yesterday, and a dozen detectives in plain clothes mingled in the crowds that came and went. They scrutinized every person, and no stranger was allowed to approach the entrances to the trading hall unless he gave a good excuse.

Cassius Belden, the man who wounded three men on the board with his revolver, was arraigned for trial yesterday, but was held over until October 5 in $10,000 bonds. He will probably be sent to the Detention Hospital to-day, where an inquiry into his sanity will be made.

All of the wounded persons, it is believed will recover.

BURIED IN A MINE.

Forty Men Cut Off from Escape in Michigan.

[SPECIAL TO THE REPUBLICAN.]

CHICAGO, Sept. 28.—This morning a heavy fall of earth in the Mansfield mine near Crystal Falls, Mich., entombed forty men, with little or no chance of escape. The prospects of reaching the unfortunates are very poor. The situation is awful, and the scenes around the cave-in are heart-rending. The rescuing party is doing everything possible to reach the entombed men, with but slight chance of reaching them on time.

STONED BY BOYS.

A Son of Rev. M. Auer Seriously Hurt by Vengeful Lads.

Last evening Edgar Auer, son of Rev. M. Auer, the Methodist circuit preacher, was assaulted in a cowardly manner by several boys near the corner of South Webster street and Cantrell Avenue. Edgar is a salesman at Hatch & Bros.' store, and was on his way home between 6 and 7 o'clock. As he was walking along near the fence a number of stones were thrown at him, and he was struck on the head by one of them. For several moments he was stunned, and the next thing he knew Edgar was clinging to the fence to keep from falling. More stones were hurled at him, but he managed to reach home without being hit again. Wednesday night while going home on the street car, Edgar saw a lot of boys were stealing a ride on the rear platform. The motorman asked Edgar to drive the boys off, and he did it in a gentlemanly manner. The boys were angry and called out: "We'll lay for you!" They kept their promise. It caught those boys will have to suffer some punishment. Edgar is not at work to-day.

Garret Cunningham vs. Maggie E. Cunningham; divorce. Motion entered by defendant for temporary alimony and solicitor's fee.

A Bad Injury.

Lon Abel, while using the striking bag at the Calumet Club gymnasium, met with a very unfortunate accident that bids fair to cause him no little amount of trouble. Had a cigar in his mouth at the time he was practicing and had got the bag to swinging very rapidly when he missed striking it, the bag striking him in the face and knocking the lighted end of his cigar into the ball of his right eye, burning away the lashes and terribly blistering the ball. He was completely blinded for the time, but was assisted to a carriage and taken to an oculist who succeeded in removing the ashes and alleviating the terrible pain. The physician does not think he will lose the sight, although it will be a great while before he will recover the use of the injured eye.

Gone and Going.

The main body of the Decatur hunting party left yesterday for Wauseedah Mich., to be absent there four weeks The gentlemen composing the party are D. S. Shellabarger, W. H. Starr, William Traver, D. A. Moffit, O. E. Curtis, H. F. May, W. B. Chambers, John Shellabarger of Salina, Kan., B. W. Campbell and George Belden of Cincinnati, and A. L. Ide of Springfield. The members of the Macon county hunting party will leave for Hickory Ridge, Arkansas, October 30th, to shoot deer and turkey.

Sunday at St. John's.

By invitation of the vestry, the Rev. A. R. Kieffer, rector of Grace church, Colorado Springs, Colo., will hold services at St. John's Protestant Episcopal church on Sunday, October 1st, at 10:20 in the morning and 7:30 in the evening. Choir boys are requested by Mrs. Pemberton to meet at the church at 7 o'clock sharp Saturday evening for practice.

Cannot Come.

In another column the statement is made that Rev. David F. Howe will occupy the pulpit at the First M. E. church on Sunday. This afternoon a telegram was received by Milton Johnson from Rev. Howe stating that it will be impossible for him to reach Decatur on Sunday. Elder Scrimger may occupy the pulpit Sunday.

AN American who has been visiting Professor John Stuart Blackie says the latter has the blunest eyes he ever saw, the brain of a scholar and the heart of a little lad.

A Card From Rev. James Miller.

EDITOR REPUBLICAN: Your article in yesterday's REPUBLICAN, headed "Crane vs. Miller," was, unfortunately, very untimely, and does great injustice to Rev. C. A. Crane, as, at the time it came to the public, Bro. Crane and myself were engaged in seeking an amicable adjustment of the differences between us and such an adjustment was reached a very few hours after your article was published.

It is due Bro. Crane to say that, when the matter of a private adjustment of our differences was suggested to him, he met the suggestion with the urbanity of a christian gentleman, and was as anxious as myself that we should come to an understanding between ourselves without any outside interference or conference action. Whatever may have been the motives which prompted him to prefer charges against me, it is due to him that I should say that a personal interview with him fully convinced me that he was not prompted thereto by personal animosity.

Our differences have been settled on such a basis and in such a spirit that I can and do hold Brother Crane in high esteem as a christian and a personal friend.

The charges against me are withdrawn, and just as soon as this information reaches the bishop I expect to be transferred to the Illinois conference.

Thanking you heartily for the kind and unqualified endorsement you give me, I remain yours, very truly, JAMES MILLER.

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 28, 1893.

[The foregoing letter was received from Rev. James Miller this morning and his friends in Decatur will be pleased to know that the charges against him filed by Rev. Charles A. Crane, of Danville have been withdrawn and that the way is now open for the transfer of Mr. Miller to this conference to take charge of the church in Bloomington. The conclusions reached by the REPUBLICAN in relation to the filing of these charges, which from the positions occupied by the gentlemen in the controversy may have been unfortunate and untimely, we think were altogether justifiable, and the fact that there was some difference or misunderstanding between Mr. Miller and Mr. Crane which it is now evident led to the filing of these charges, and that the adjustment of these differences led to the withdrawal of the charges, fully confirms the correctness of our deductions. We congratulate both gentlemen upon the pleasant ending of what promised to be a most unpleasant affair.

What the REPUBLICAN had to say of the matter was said altogether from a newspaper standpoint and was not intended to forestall a friendly adjustment or to bring such an event about, nor was it for the purpose of injuring either of the parties to the controversy. It was simply a fair comment on the face of the facts, connected with the arrest of Mr. Miller's character, as they appeared to the person looking on.

Rev. James Miller is a gentleman the Methodist church cannot well afford to lose. The same will be admitted as to Rev. Charles Crane by those who know him as a preacher. The fact that he has been returned for a fifth year to the First M. E. church, in Danville, attests that he is not a second rate preacher. The facts are that we know Mr. Crane to be one of the leading preachers in the Illinois conference and fully able to popularize any pulpit within its bounds. It is unfortunate that circumstances sometimes draw useful men of this character into contesting differences; but it is fortunate that they are great enough to meet as gentleman and christians and settle them.—ED.]

Caught In a Car.

Two strangers giving their names as J. D. Freeman and Benj. James were caught last night by Officers Park and Jack Lilly in a Wabash freight car, in the east end of the yard. They claimed to be stealing a ride, but it is charged that one of the men had broken open a package containing tobacco and had a car link in his hand at the time of his arrest. The other man had a revolver which he attempted to use, but Park was too swift for him. The prisoners were put in the calaboose, and to-day they were lodged in the county jail. The grand jury will probably bring in bills against the prisoners for burglary and larceny.

THE CHARGES WITHDRAWN.

Rev. C. A. Crane, of Danville, Withdraws His Heresy Charge Against Rev. James Miller.

Bloomington Pantagraph, Sept. 29.

Yesterday afternoon the members of the Grace M. E. church here received a telegram from Rev. James Miller, at Hoopeston, saying that the charge of heresy preferred against him by Rev. C. A. Crane, who is from Danville, had taken objections to a sermon delivered by Rev. Mr. Miller in Chicago, on Sunday opening of the World's Fair, and a newspaper controversy prevailed between the two for some time. Rev. Mr. Crane brought the charges to the attention of Bishop Fowler, at Clinton, just before the conference appointments were read. The case was to be tried before the Rock River conference, which convenes Oct. 4, at Dixon, but will of course now be dismissed.

When Rev. James Miller learned of the charges that had been preferred against him, he came to this city and conferred with his prospective parishioners of Grace church. Wednesday night he went to Danville to see Mr. Crane. The rules of the Methodist Episcopal Church require that when charges of that sort are brought up the plaintiff shall furnish to the defendant a statement as to where, when and on what occasion the offense was committed, and what the offense was. Mr. Miller went to Mr. Crane to obtain this statement, and although hard pressed to furnish it, Mr. Crane was at last compelled to acknowledge that he could not. The interview continued until after midnight yesterday morning, and Mr. Crane decided to withdraw all charges and complaints. The affair ended to the complete satisfaction of Rev. James Miller, who yesterday proceeded to Chicago, and he was on his way thither when he stopped at Hoopeston to telegraph to this city the result of his interview. The news was received very joyfully by the members of the Grace church, and Rev. Miller will be here to preach next Sunday. Rev. Mr. Miller is obliged to attend the Rock River conference meeting next Wednesday, for, although he is admitted to this conference, he must be excused from the one that has jurisdiction in Chicago, where he was located before he came to this district.

It is not yet known what prompted Rev. Mr. Crane to bring the charges against Rev. Mr Miller unless it was jealousy. The fact that Rev. Mr. Miller is one of the most successful preachers in the state, and the further fact that he desired to be taken into this conference would necessarily result in the poorer preachers remaining one step lower and Mr Crane, probably realizing that Mr. Miller's coming would injure his chances for advancement, decided if possible to keep him out of the conference. At least this is the solution of the question by those who have considered the matter.

Keene in "Richelieu" to-night.

To Sell the Illinois Building.

CHICAGO, Ill., Sept. 28.—The Illinois Board of World's Fair Commissioners decided yesterday to advertise the Illinois State Building for sale. The legal notice requires a certain time, so they were compelled to advertise the sale for Dec. 28. On that date the structure will be sold to the highest bidder, but it is said privately, anybody who gets a cinch on it before will be recognized. Gen. McNulta is here and was at the Illinois Building yesterday, looking after the interests of Bloomington in the location of the state fair. Bloomington has made the most liberal proposition yet received by the locators of the state, and the other cities have got to get in lively to be recognized

J. A. Garland Arrested.

LINCOLN, Ill., Sept. 28.—John A. Garland, of Springfield, State agent for the New York Life Insurance company, was arrested at Edwardsville and brought to this city this morning on the charge of embezzlement. The charge is preferred by H. C. Maltby, who gave Garland a check for $157 to pay a note he owed the above company, but which was not turned in to the company. Garland is a son-in-law of Dr. A. M. Miller, superintendent of the Illinois Asylum for Feebleminded children, and is highly connected. He has furnished bail and claims to be able to refute the charge.

SPANISH LOYALTY

Bubbles Over with Enthusiasm for the Queen Regent and Her Royal Son.

MADRID, Sept 29.—Queen Regent Christina and the boy king Alfonso arrived in Madrid yesterday from San Sebastian. Their return to the capital was made the occasion for a display of unwonted enthusiasm, the people apparently wishing to show by their demonstrations of loyalty that they had no sympathy with the anarchists who have of late been so active in Spain. Crowds gathered about the railway station and along the streets through which the royal party passed on their way to the palace.

When the queen regent and her son appeared the crowd became frantic with delight and yelled and cheered until they were hoarse. Cries of "Long live Christina," "Long live the king," were heard all along the route, and many ladies in the balconies of houses threw flowers before the carriage in which the queen regent and Alfonso rode. It is seldom that such a spontaneous outburst of enthusiasm is seen in Madrid, and the queen regent appeared to fully appreciate the motives that promated it.
